Tenured Faculty - Communication, Jacobs Technion-Cornell Innovation Institute, Cornell NYC Tech Campus

Position Description: A faculty position in Communication is available at the Jacobs Technion-Cornell Innovation Institute (www.jtcii.org) at the new Cornell NYC Tech campus in New York City. At the Cornell Tech campus, this individual will contribute to an interdisciplinary hub on “connective media,” bringing together researchers and graduate students from communication, engineering, computer science, management, and other fields, as well as local industry and businesses.

Candidates may come from Communication or a related discipline, with interests in social media, computer-mediated communication, human computer interaction, media policy, media psychology, media institutions, and/or similar topics. The individual will be based in New York City, and her/his tenure home will be in the Department of Communication, College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, at the Ithaca campus. The position is open to senior candidates capable of being tenured at the Associate or Full Professor level.

Qualifications: Candidates must hold a Ph.D. in Communication or closely aligned field, must have an ability to conduct outstanding research, and must also have a strong demonstrated interest in the technology commercialization and entrepreneurship mission of the Cornell Tech campus and the JTChi.

We will begin reviewing applications immediately and continue until positions are filled. Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, brief statements of research and teaching interests, and the names and contact information of at least three references online at https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/2844

Cornell University is an inclusive, dynamic, and innovative Ivy League university and New York’s land-grant institution, with its main campus in Ithaca, NY, its medical campus on the Upper East Side of Manhattan, and its new Cornell NYC Tech campus planned for Roosevelt Island in New York City. The University’s staff, faculty, and students impart an uncommon sense of larger purpose and contribute creative ideas and best practices to further the university’s mission of teaching, research, and outreach. This faculty position is based in New York City at the Cornell NYC Tech campus, which is located in a temporary facility in the Chelsea neighborhood in Manhattan, until moving to its permanent home on Roosevelt Island.

Cornell embraces diversity and seeks candidates who can contribute to a welcoming climate for students of all races and genders. Cornell University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer. We strongly encourage qualified women and minority candidates to apply.
